The UKIVA Machine Vision Conference is the UK's leading machine vision event; now in its eighth year and still going strong!

The Machine Vision Conference attracts over 500 visitors giving exhibitors plenty of opportunities to showcase their product to a wide audience. This highly regarded annual event is organised by UK Industrial Vision Association (UKIVA), which is part of the PPMA Group of Associations.

The two-day conference and exhibition takes place on 18-19 June 2024 at the Coventry Building Society Arena.

It will showcase the latest exciting innovations in technology, services and solutions from leading experts in industrial vision and imaging.

The event is co-located with the automation and robotics exhibition, Automation UK. It will provide visitors with the unique opportunity of experiencing industrial applications of robotics and vision under one roof.

WHY EXHIBIT IN 2024

- Brings together over 500 visitors from the UK and overseas including key decision-makers and influencers
- Hear from an impressive lineup of industry experts at the dynamic seminar programme with over 60 technical sessions
- Opportunity to showcase cutting-edge industrial vision innovations
- Develop mutually beneficial relationships with new and existing suppliers and buyers
- Live thought provoking demonstrations
- Network and share knowledge with industry peers
- Co-located alongside Automation UK offering a rare opportunity of seeing industrial applications of robotics and vision under one roof

This is the premier UK machine vision event, bringing together suppliers and integrators with a view to solving customer problems.
